Rowan University

Glassboro, New Jersey

Students get psyched at the annual Bonfire-Pep Rally! Someone needs a hair cut!

90's A decade of CHANGE

*H*omecoming 1999's theme was all encompassing, 90's, a decade of change was brought to life by Homecoming participants and, of course, our Glassboro State-Rowan University Alumni. Activities held over the week brought Faculty, Administration, and Students together in a celebration of our school spirit and pride.

From the Delta Sigma Theta Spice of Life Cookoff, which started the celebration, to the beat of Alpha Phi Alpha's Step Show, which ended the week with intensity, Homecoming week was full of activities that were both traditional and contemporary. Of course the Parade, Game and Pageant all had high attendance; however, new this year was the Residence Life Sponsored Lip Sync which drew an immense crowd much like the Pageant. Also popular was the Delta Chi Halloween Party.

Reflecting on the 90's decade, Rowan University can be seen as a prime example of change. From the activities, to the students; From the Faculty to the Administration, the decade has proven to be exciting for our campus community on all levels.

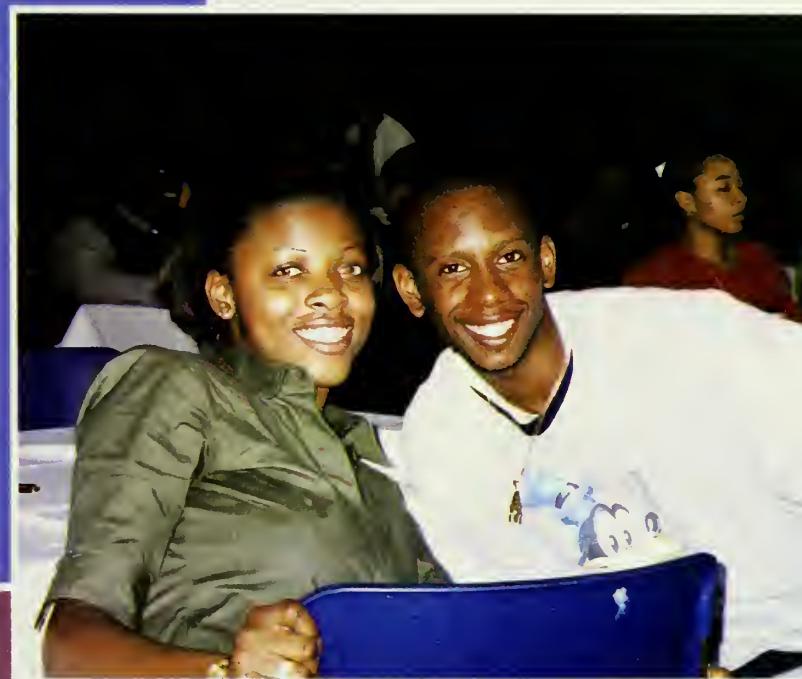

Remembering the past, anticipating the future...What will he new millennium bring?

At the "Spice of Life Cookoff", Zakia and Berty show their pearly whites.

The ladies of Delta Sigma Theta "Spice" up Homecoming '99.

Hungry for change? Make Herr's yours!

First place winner continues to tell the truth...
do not lie

Judges making their executive decision. Whose lips were in sync?

The judges have come to their final decision! And the winner is...

Third place goes to... Shania Twain? Hmmm...
Man! HE feels like a woman!

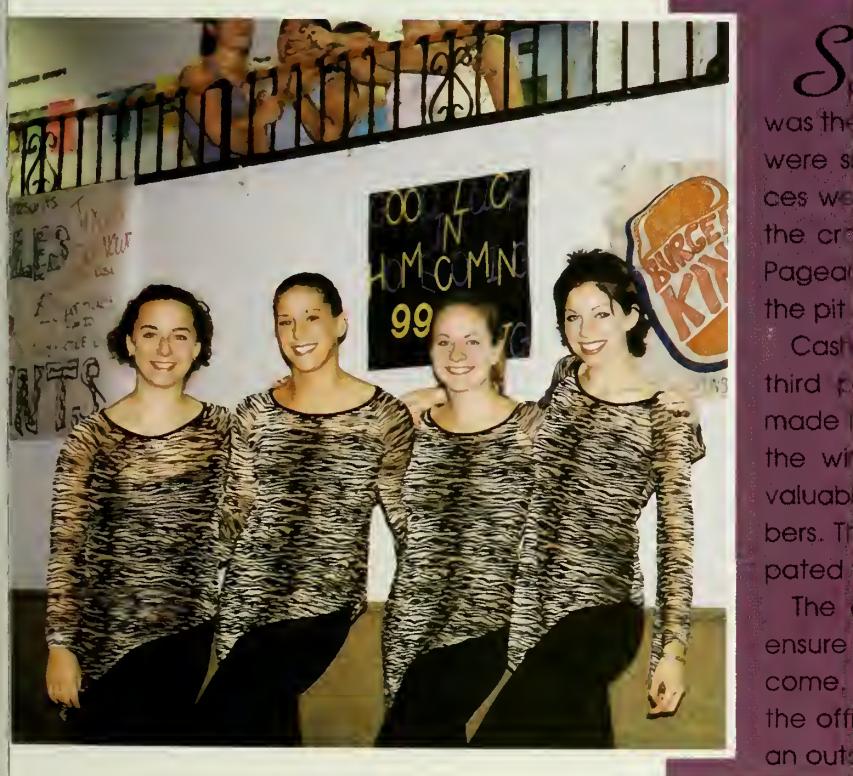

Second Place...Everybody JUMP, JUMP! Kriss Kross'll make yah JUMP, JUMP!

Lip Sync '99 That's Entertainment

Sponsored by the Residence Life Office was the First Annual Lip Sync Contest. Some acts were single performers while other performances were by groups; each brought cheers from the crowd and a lot of laughs! Aside from the Pageant, no other event has successfully filled the pit like the Lip Sync contest.

Cash prizes were given to the first, second and third place winners. The 27 acts performed made it a difficult task for the judges to select the winners. A raffle drawing was taken and valuable prizes were won by audience members. The DJ entertained the crowd as all anticipated the next group!

The overwhelming success of this event will ensure its annual Homecoming return for years to come. Applause to all the participants and to the office of Residence Life for sponsoring such an outstanding competition!

Dr. Ed Streb, Master of Ceremonies, keeps us all entertained and on the edge...Who will be "the last Homecoming King and Queen of the Millennium?"

Beauty and the Beast

The last Homecoming King and Queen of the Millennium were announced at this jam packed event. Jaime Egan and Soany Montilla were crowned the honor by former Homecoming King and Queen, Siafa Lewis and Rosanne Kerr.

Egan was honored to be recognized for his campus involvement and scholastic achievements while Montilla expressed that, "If you work hard, you can succeed and have anything you want."

The night was filled with excitement and a cultural entertainment theme. The Junior Class, led by President Ryan North, was responsible for the performances between competition segments. These crowd pleasing acts included a fashion show by the Asian Cultural Society, an energetic dance from 3D, a step presentation from Kappa Alpha Psi and an inspiring song sung by Melinda Pickett.

Placing for the King were Logan Rittberg, Ed Norcia, and Scott Bursak. Placing for the Queen were Nicole Battalias, Saratheresa Zick, and Kristi McKinney. An excellent job was done by all of the contestants and congrats to the winners. Thank you for representing the University and being such positive students.

Sean Altis, representing The Student Activities Board, struts his stuff down the runway.

Keely Hagan and Jennifer Doyle, sisters of Alpha Epsilon Phi, are ready for the pageant.

Scott Bursak, of Kappa Sigma, stands proud with his First Place Runner Up trophy.

First Place Runner Up goes to Kristi McKinney representing the Black Cultural League.

Senior Class President, Terri Scoller welcomes all participants and spectators to the Beauty and Beast Homecoming Pageant.

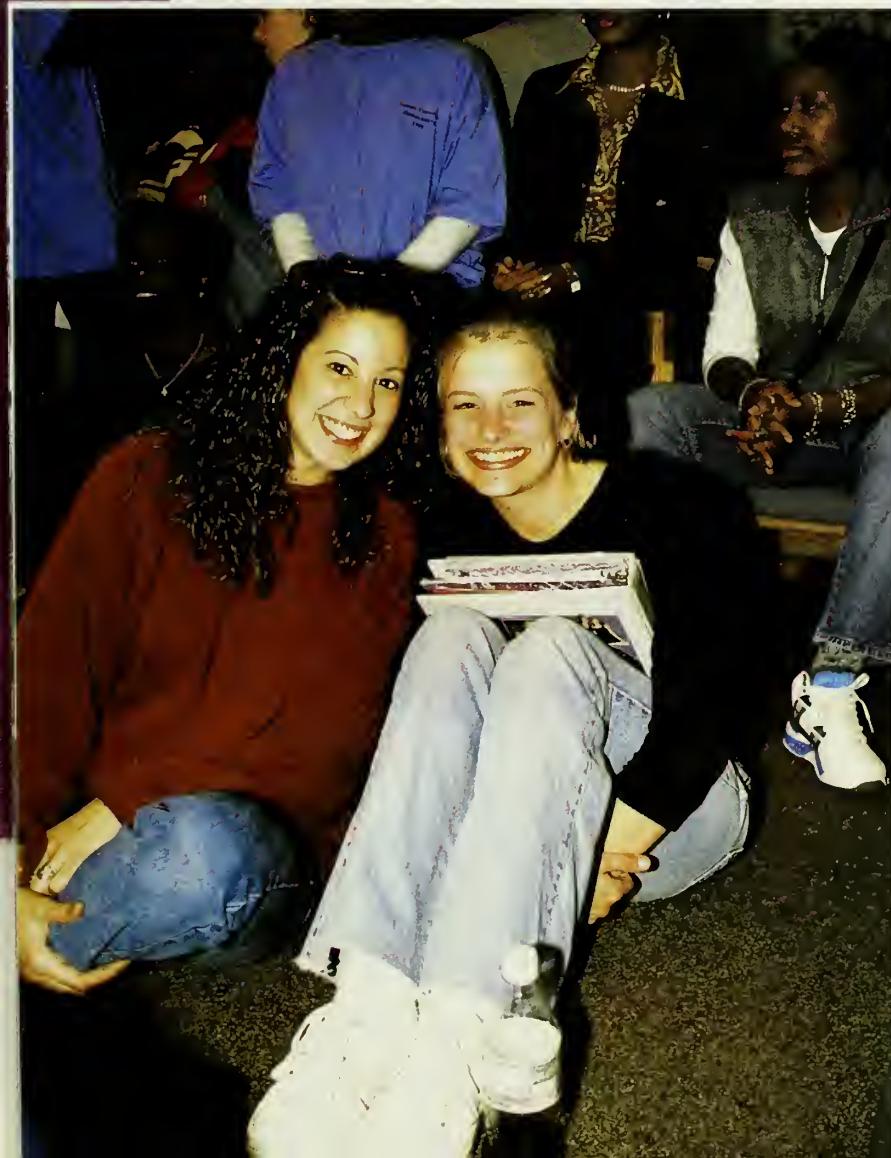

Nicole Battalias, of Dance Extensions, carries herself and her Third Runner Up trophy proudly!

Backstage, pre-pageant, Saratheresa Zick, Kristi McKinney and Soany Montilla smile for the camera...ironically, each placed in right to left order!

Kappa Alpha Psi, The Pretty Boys, step to the music during intermission.

Go Beyond
our first Impressions

Rob Gleason, of Phi Kappa Sigma, thanks his friends and family for all their support.

The Sophomore Class, led by Jessica Mitschelle, held the annual pre-game psych fest! Bonfire-PepRally participants proved to be a spirited bunch! The very first Powder Puff Football Championship Trophy was presented to Phi Sigma Sigma and enthusiasm increased steadily throughout the night.

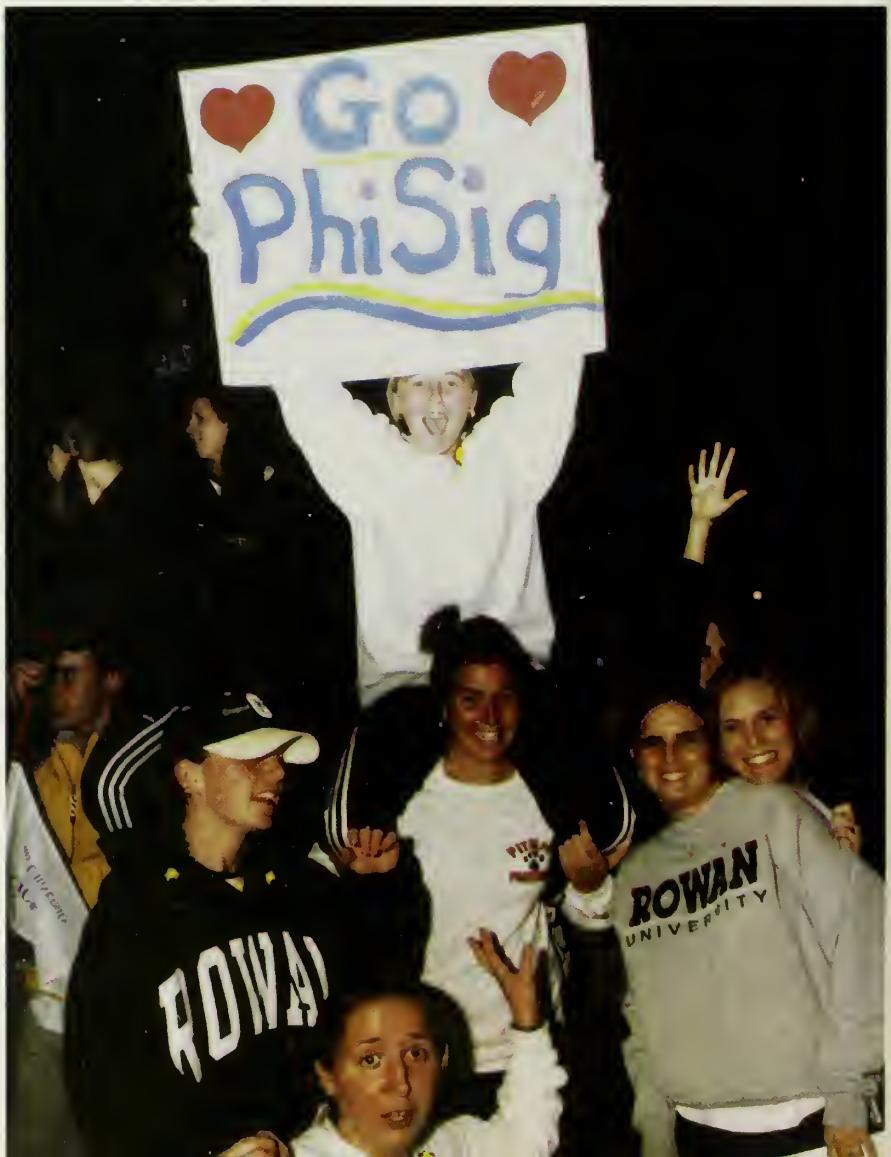

The Bonfire-PepRally is a long time tradition for many schools, including Rowan University. Years ago, a torch was run from Trenton to Rowan in order to light the fire; this tradition has since died, but spirits were still high. The bands played while teams and organizations cheered in preparation for the big game!

Let's hear some NOISE

Fireworks light the sky and keep the spirits high!

"Organizations, show your colors!" Delta Zeta participates in spirit contest.

Softball team comes to cheer for the fall sports and get an early swing into their season!

Can we get a hoot and hollar for the Prof? Go teams!

t's all about spirit! Students gather to cheer for our teams.

Dan in a diaper! Theta Chi and Tri Sigma place first among Greeks with their Rugrats playroom.

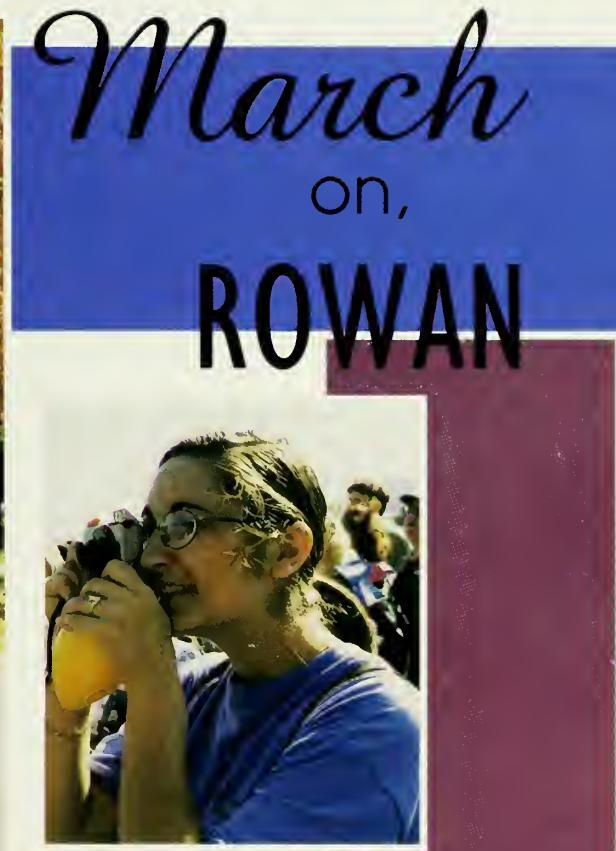

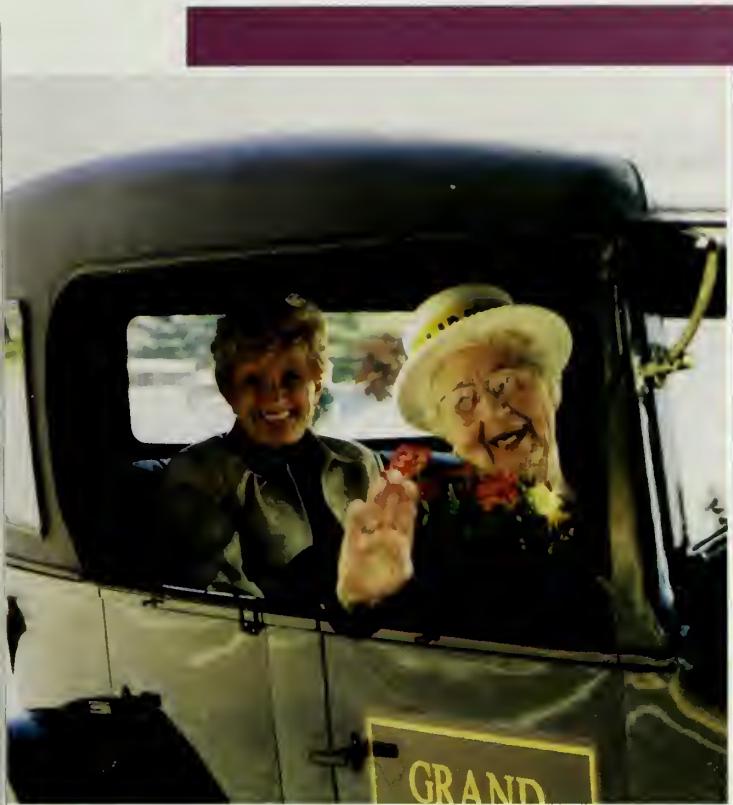

Who are those guys? Isn't Delta Chi a Fraternity?

Post-parade, alumni and undergrads pose for a quick pic on their way to the game.

The United Latino Association vive la vida loca and grab first among the non-greek organizational floats.

The Rowan University R.O.T.C. proudly march in the parade carrying our national and school colors.

The Rowan Profs humiliated Kean University in front of 5,000 fans with a winning score of 44 - 0. The powerful blocking of the offensive line and the exerted effort of the running backs proved to be Rowan's strongest attributes. With a total of five take-a-ways, the Profs' defense would not allow Kean any openings. This Homecoming game marked the Prof's seventh straight win of the '99 football season. The crowd was pleased with the win, but might have enjoyed the excitement of a closer, more competitive game.

Make NO assumptions

Another touchdown;
another cheer!

Homecoming King and Queen come to support the team and show spirit at the game.

Intensely observing; thinking strategically; ready to play.

The offensive line guards the play.

Sideline collaboration takes place inside the minds behind the play.

...and such was

A letter from the SGA President, Elizabeth Randazzese

As the Student Body President of the 1999-2000 academic year, I would like to offer warm congratulations to the Class of 2000. It is truly unbelievable that four years ago we began at Rowan College of New Jersey, and now we are graduating from the fine institution of Rowan University. Along with this institution, we have also seen ourselves grow, change, and improve in many different areas. The incredible experiences we have gained both inside and outside the classroom have provided us with an amazing foundation that we can take to any profession we choose. As the first class of the new millennium, I feel honored to have worked and interacted with many of you. Although we will each carry our own memories from Rowan, we will never forget those memories we share which remain close to our hearts. I certainly wish each graduate the best of luck with the future and leave each of you with something to think about: "The greatest tragedy in life is not death, rather it is what dies inside of us as we live!"

Enthusiastically,
Liz Randazzese

A letter from the Senior Class President, Terri Sadler

As the Senior Class President I would like to extend my congratulations on this memorable achievement. As a class we have come a long way. We entered into Rowan College and now we are graduating from Rowan University. This institution has provided us many opportunities and challenges and through it all we have prevailed. As each of us go toward our different paths in life let us not forget our cherished memories and the common link we have to this institution. I wish each graduating senior the best of luck with their future endeavors. Remember that we have started a bond to this University and now it is our turn to give back by becoming active alumni!

Best Wishes,
Terri Sadler

The Student Government Association of Rowan University

The Student Government Senate and Executive Board started this year off with a retreat to the woods. By day, as a group, they practiced team building exercises; by night the members gathered around a campfire to tell scary Rowan Ghost stories and act out the perfect SGA commercial. The one which received the most laughs was the spin off from the GAP commercial where members serenaded us with "They call her Liz Randazzese"

Tony D'Angelo, founder of Empower X, visited student leaders at Rowan for an SGA sponsored conference. Here, leaders were taught lessons on teamwork and self-empowerment. This all inclusive workshop ended with a huge bang as all "broke through" mentally by physically breaking a board. All participants were enthusiastic and enjoyed the power of the presentation.

Participants search through the boards in hopes of finding their perfect cut.

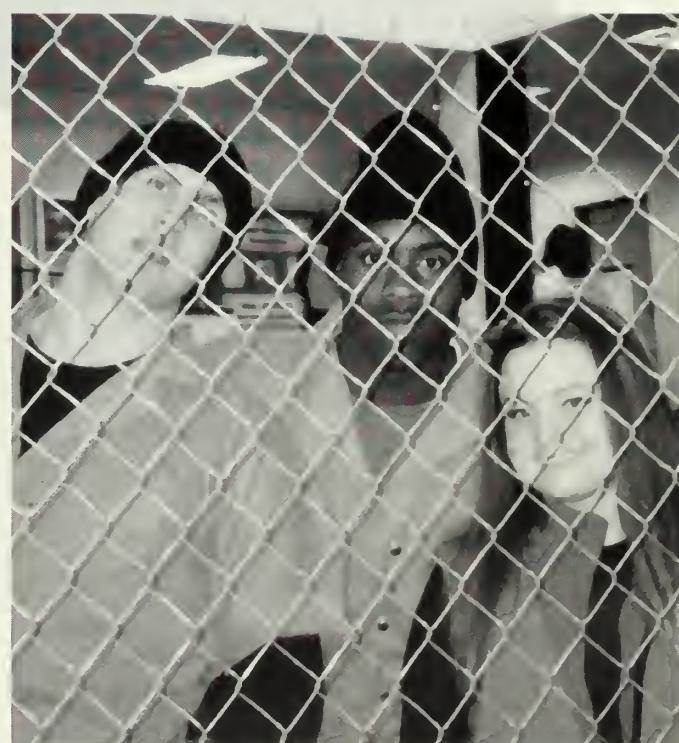

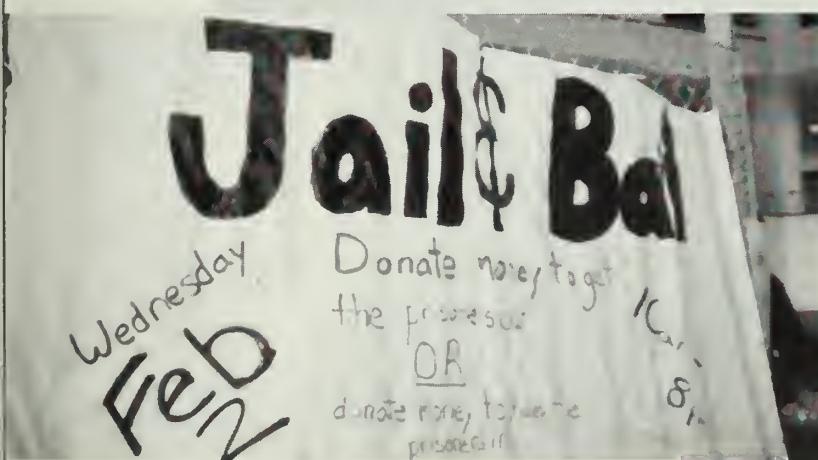

Special Events Director, Kristy Marquart chaired the Project Santa Committee which raised $6000.00 for the Mother and Child foundation.

With a Renaissance Theme, the Autumn Nocturne provided interesting entertainment for the attendees.

Tara Sparta and Juan Arbelaez enjoyed themselves at the Annual Autumn Nocturne, a fundraiser sponsored by the Foundation Board.

The SGA Executive Board, Senior Senators, Student Representatives on the Board of Trustees and other students were invited to attend this event. The food, provided by Chartwells proved us all wrong . . . they do have edible food. SGA's next question: How do we get this to the cafeteria?

A first attempt to raise money for the "Big Event", Jail and Bail raised just under $4000.00 in less than 10 hours. A very successful fundraiser led by Big Event Chair, Mike Jensen

Fall_Sports

The fall season is always an exciting time on campus, because it is a new semester with new challenges and FOOTBALL. The football team received individual honors after its fifth appearance in the Stagg Bowl within a total of seven seasons. The record was 12-2, but we still missed the coveted Stagg Bowl title. Men and Women's cross country was successful in having a strong showing in the NCAA championships. Field Hockey finished their season with an overall record of 17-4. They placed second in the NJAC and advanced to the national quarterfinals with an exciting 2-1 overtime victory in the second round. Women's soccer had a 17-3-2 record and made its first appearance in the NCAA Championships Tournament. They obtained the Rowan record for wins in a season. Men's Soccer made its 20th appearance and 10th straight in the NCAA Championship. The Profs finished with a 18-3 record which included a 16-game winning streak. Women's Volleyball qualified for the NJAC tournament for the fourth consecutive year, finishing the season with a 3-4 record in the conference.

The winter season is technically still underway, but our teams have already begun to rise up and get noticed. The Men's basketball team was able to meet their expectations set from last year; for they are looming among the best in the NJAC rankings. Although this season has proved to be difficult with a targeted attack from opposition, the men remain strong in game and mind while currently carrying an *18-2 record overall. The Women's Basketball team has been blessed with youth and depth on the team. They are targeted as the "team to beat" which stems from their final four run last season. The Profs were considered a dangerous force and seem to be setting the same precedent again. Their overall record matches the Men's *18-2. Men and Women's swimming has once again shown solid performance. In November the team was led by Coach Tony Lisa to their 300th win of his career. Indoor track has been one of the surprising sports this winter. The team consistently carries the Prof name and has increasingly stronger seasons year after year. *denotes scores as of publishing deadline

Spring_Sports

The '99 spring season proved to be successful for the Prof's. Our sport's team all received high honors both as teams and as individual athletes. The baseball team established a new Rowan record for wins in a season with an overall record of 36-8. They won their first New Jersey Athletic Conference Tournament since 1979 under the brand new head coach, John Cole who was honored as the NJAC and NJCBA Coach of the year. Along the baselines the women's softball team tied the school record for the most wins in a season with an overall record of 37-10. The softball team won the Atlantic Regional Tournament and advanced to the national championship for the fourth time. Staying in the female gender, the women's lacrosse team tied a Rowan record for wins in a season as well the overall record of 13-1. The Profs appeared for their third time in the national championship this spring. Men and women's track and field also competed strongly. The men's team included two All-American's and the honor of having a National Athlete of the Year on their starter blocks. On the same track the women's team placed third at the NJAC Championships.

Commencement

@rowan.edu

Congratulations Class of 2000!

If you look back through old yearbooks published by Rowan students, you can see the major changes this school has undergone. From the campus, to the diversified student body, it has all changed. As the university has changed, so has this publication. From an award winning book in the sixties to a "joke" in more recent years, the Image yearbook needed much improvement. With our dedicated staff, the superb direction from our publisher and funding from your Student Government Association, we are pleased to bring to you the New Image. Although it was a difficult task, we hope this book encourages you to remember your years at Rowan University fondly. Who knows? It is possible a future Chief Editor, looking back at this yearbook, will wonder what we were thinking! We often do! Still, we feel we successfully depicted the New Image of Rowan and you, its' students.

The Image would like to thank Emmy Kachel, Frank Spitale, Ed Ziegler, The Whit, the SGA, Sports Information, and the entire campus community for its' support with this publication.

In closing, I personally extend to all my fellow graduates the best of luck in the future and hope your experience at Rowan University has been as adventurous for you as it has been for me.

Sincerely,
Saratheresa E. Zick, Chief Editor

NASCAR

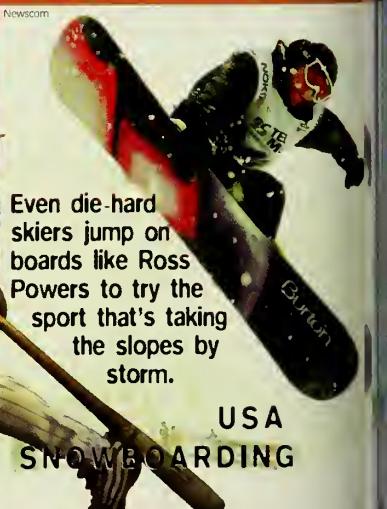

David Robinson and Tim Duncan triumph against the NY Knicks in the NBA Finals.

SAN ANTONIO SPURS

Even die-hard skiers jump on boards like Ross Powers to try the sport that's taking the slopes by storm.

USA SNOWBOARDING

The year 2000 was greeted with celebrations across the globe, including a fantastic fireworks display at the Eiffel Tower and religious ceremonies in Jerusalem. Looking back on 1999, we see a year filled with hope for the future, but also a year plagued by war and natural disaster. The conflict in Serbia kept the world on the edge of its seat, while earthquakes, tornadoes and winter storms focused our attention on international relief efforts. In 1999-2000, we also said goodbye to some of the world's most beloved celebrities including John F. Kennedy Jr., Walter Payton and Charles Schulz.

WEATHER

The century came to a close with an upsurge of natural disasters. Hurricane Floyd caused $4.2 billion worth of damage on the East Coast while snowstorms crippled regions of the Northeast and Midwest. Internationally, earthquakes killed thousands in Turkey, Columbia and Taiwan.

MILLENNIUM

While some stockpiled Y2K supplies and safeguarded their computers against the "millennium bug," others rang in the new century with fireworks, parties and religious celebrations. While merchandise branding the date 01.01.00 filled stores, millennium countdown clocks were seen everywhere from billboards to post offices.

DISCOVERY

The Hubble Telescope, Earth's orbiting eye to the heavens beamed back pictures of new planets and nebulas, while kinks in the NASA Mars Polar Lander mission delayed hopes of discovering more about the mysterious red planet.

GOODBYE

As we said goodbye to the century, we also said goodbye to some of the world's most beloved celebrities. John F. Kennedy Jr. was killed in a private plane crash while Charles Schulz passed away on the night before his last "Peanuts" comic strip was to be published in Sunday papers around the world. Sports legends Walter Payton, Joe DiMaggio and Tom Landry also left us this year.

Ex-Menudo vocalist Ricky Martin wows audiences with his first English album, and actress/singer Jennifer Lopez scores big with her own first album, "On the 6." The biggest success story of the year, however, is former Mouseketeer Britney Spears' meteoric rise to fame via her debut LP "...Baby One More Time."

These cool cowgirls continue to enjoy the success of their breakthrough album "Wide Open Spaces."

TLC returns to the hip-hop scene with "Fan Mail," featuring the singles "Come On Down" and "No Scrubs."

Jennifer Love Hewitt ventured out on her own, tackling the concrete jungle of New York City in "Time Of Your Life." Animated sitcom "The Simpsons" remained popular while cartoonist Matt Groening's newest series, "Futurama," gained a wider audience. ## What On Earth Happened?

AP/Wide World

AP/Wide World

The world spent much of the past thousand years making some pretty amazing history. As the millennium began, Druids practiced dark rituals, while the Byzantine Empire dominated Eastern Europe. Conqueror Genghis Khan put the Mongols on the map in the 1200s, and the Great Wall protected China against would-be invaders.

The Middle Ages, though plagued by feudalism, heralded gallant knights and the governing ideals of the Magna Carta. The Renaissance and The Enlightenment both saw great achievements in art, science and exploration, followed by Romantic and Revolutionary periods in France and colonial America.

As industry and capitalism grew, so did Communism in the Soviet Union and beyond. The World Wars and other 20th century conflicts brought struggles for power amid vast advancements in communications and technology.

History's movers and shakers included Joan of Arc, the teenager who led France to victory against England in 1429, and Martin Luther whose religious reforms shocked the 16th century. King Henry VIII of England kept his head while several of his spouses lost theirs. Sir Winston Churchill helped England stand courageously against Nazi Germany. One recent hero is Nelson Mandela, South Africa's first black president and anti-apartheid activist. Time marches on...and the next chapter is already being written.

And The Wall Came Tumbling Down

In 1961, the Berlin Wall was erected to prevent residents of Communist East Berlin, Germany, from fleeing to non-Communist West Berlin for a better way of life. In 1989, the East Germans opened the Wall, lifted immigration restrictions and reunited Germany. Tearing down the Wall symbolized the end of the Cold War, which started when the Soviet Union created "Iron Curtain" countries isolated from the Western world. In the '50s, fear of communism in the United States resulted in the "Red Scare."

...With A Star On Top

The Christmas tree began as an evergreen decorated with apples, symbolizing Eden in a December medieval German play. By the 1600s, trees in German homes were trimmed with candles, fruits and cookies. Currently, Christmas is a multi-billion dollar business with wreaths, mistletoe, stockings, movies, outdoor decorations and cards.

In A Flash, A-Bomb Creates Nuclear Age

On August 6, 1945, a U.S. plane, the Enola Gay, dropped an atomic bomb on Hiroshima, Japan, annihilating the city and nearly 130,000 of its citizens. Japan surrendered soon after, ending World War II. Because of Japan's attack on Pearl Harbor, resulting in America's participation in the war, and the Holocaust atrocities perpetrated by Adolf Hitler's Nazi Germany, the destructive effects of World War II would live in infamy.

When Muslims took control of the Holy Land during the Middle Ages, Christians from Western Europe vowed to recapture the area. Nine major Crusades were organized with kings, nobles, peasants, and even children taking part. None was successful. Holy wars have continued to rage in such places as the Middle East, including the Six-Day War between Israel and Egypt in 1967.

The Royal Flush

Where would the Ty-D-Bowl Man and bathroom libraries be without the flush toilet? After septic tanks and modern sewage systems were improved, civilizations significantly reduced the risks of severe illnesses and epidemics which were so common during the Middle Ages. Concerns prompted public health improvements, including garbage collection and disposal, water treatment and food processing.

Crusading Towards The Holy Land

Setting Off An Explosion

With the world population now topping 6 billion and increasing at an annual rate of 1.6%, more people are living now than have ever died. The population is rising because of high birth rates coupled with much lower death rates as a result of better living conditions.

Hoop'n It Up

Super Stock

With the correct hip action, the bright round plastic Hoola-Hoop could rotate for hours. When Wham-O introduced it in 1958, stores couldn't keep Hoops stocked and sales topped $100 million. Who could forget Yo-Yos, Super Soakers, Slinkys, Pogo Sticks, Clackers, Wiffle Balls, Silly Putty, Frisbees and all those other preoccupying pastimes?

"Outlook Good." "Yes Definitely." In the '60s, important decisions were made by turning over the Magic 8 Ball or putting fingers on the Ouija board. Holy Dionne Warwick! Perhaps these were even more reliable than the Psychic Friends Network. Through the ages, fortune tellers and the supernatural have fascinated seekers of the unknown. Was all this stuff for real, oh Magic 8 Ball? "Don't Bet on It."

The Craze That Wouldn't Lettuce Alone

The threat of war may have loomed in Lebanon, but the real fighting broke out in toy stores between frenzied parents who found Cabbage Patch Kids in short supply before Christmas in the '80s. No sooner had consumers recovered from this invasion when they were hit with Power Rangers, Tickle Me Elmo, Beanie Babies and Furby manias. Dolly, can you say "Buy, Buy?"

She's Got The Skinny On The Mini

Reuters

The miniskirt caused a sensation in Swinging '60s London and beyond. The mini series led to the ultra-short micromini, ankle-length maxiskirt, calf-length midiskirt, hot pants and virtually every look ever shown in music videos. Hemlines have risen and fallen throughout history—from hoop skirts and gowns to '20s flapper dresses.

Hats Off To The Millennium

Here's where fashion headed as centuries passed. Hats symbolized social status and made a statement. However, hats also protected noggin from bumps and cold weather as well as curing bed head.

Stare And Stare Alike

The 3-D thrill of the Viewmaster was love at first sight. Then along came Magic Eye, random dot stereograms that revealed 3-D images hidden in colorful graphics with holograms that practically jumped out. Life had become a virtual reality.

As The Rubik Turns

More than 200 million people twisted their way to the 3-D solution of the Rubik's Cube puzzle in the '80s. Some tried memorizing the cube's configuration while it was still in the package. Preoccupation with puzzles dates back to the first jigsaw puzzles in the 18th century. The world is still trying to solve crosswords, word searches, "Where's Waldo?" and other brain-busting challenges.

That's Pretty Fad-tastic!

Leaders. Followers. The millennium caught every generation a bit off-guard, but folks quickly had the lingo and the look down. When Elizabethan life got ruffled around the collar, everyone copied. Then poof! Powdered wigs, some several feet high, got nobles noticed in the 17th century. How about wooden teeth in Washington's time? By George, it beat having none at all!

As the years passed, women wore the bustle and disco freaks did the Hustle. The '50s poodle skirts bred '70s dog tags, '80s spiked dog collars and '90s Old Navy mutts. Who knew there'd be just as much fur-vor over Davy Crockett coonskin caps in the '50s as with raccoon coats in the '20s?

While some slipped on shining armor, carefree flapper dresses and Calvin Klein jeans, others followed different fads. Joysticks maneuvered Pac-Man into the arcade hall of fame. Suddenly everyone cared for Pet Rocks, squeezed into phone booths, pounced on Pog, pierced body parts and chose CB radio handles. Will there be as many "must haves" next millennium? Only the Magic 8 Ball knows for sure.

Arts Imitate Life

Super Stock

Super Stock

Nearly every civilization during the millennium expressed its culture and defining events through art and architecture. Great painters, musicians, authors and sculptors vividly captured the emotions of their day. Early Romans built coliseums and staged comedies. Byzantine mosaics and icons reflected Eastern Christian beliefs while Chinese painters produced deft landscapes.

The Middle Ages fostered the rise of Gothic cathedrals, poet Chaucer's "Canterbury Tales" and finely woven tapestries. In the Renaissance, William Shakespeare pumped up a volume of still-popular plays.

Michelangelo busily sculpted his marble marvel David. Novelists such as Jane Austen characterized the Romantic Movement of the 18th century while the 19th century promoted Impressionist painter Monet, socially-conscious authors including Charles Dickens and the riverside adventures of Mark Twain.

Ballet legend Nijinsky leaped on the 20th century arts scene. Picasso broke with tradition to pioneer Cubism and Dali turned dreams into surrealism. Don't forget Dadaism, Mamaism and Norman Rockwellism. Opera was a trill a minute with stars including Beverly Sills and Luciano Pavarotti.

Stephen King and Ann Rice chilled with horror novels, while Ernest Hemingway and John Steinbeck proved more down-to-earth. Broadway was Neil Simon-ized, then "Lion King"-ized.

Deep Thought
Number 2,714

When 19th century French sculptor Auguste Rodin created his bronze work, The Thinker, he used his knowledge of anatomy and movement to capture intensely human emotions as great Renaissance and Baroque sculptors Michelangelo and Bernini had done before him. Many 20th century sculptors crafted more experimental works, such as Marc Chagall's mobiles and Marcel Duchamp's creations from discarded materials.

Smile. You're On Canvas Camera

Renaissance master Leonardo da Vinci's 1503 portrait of Mona Lisa, the wife of a silk merchant, was extraordinary with its dramatic dark/light contrasts and ultra-mysterious smile. A face immortalized in history was a cinch if one happened to know such artists as Rembrandt, Van Gogh, Toulouse-Lautrec or Wyeth. Many painters, however, opted for religious scenes, still lifes and landscapes.

Willie Make It Now?

Sixty-year-old Willie Laman spent his life way out there in the blue, riding a smile and a shoeshine, a salesman extraordinaire. Arthur Miller's drama, "Death of a Salesman," became one of the most riveting plays ever staged as it questioned the American dream and explored the depths of failure. During the 20th century, audiences have witnessed other gripping dramas such as "A Raisin in the Sun" and "The Glass Menagerie."

Clawing Its Way To The Top

After Andrew Lloyd Webber picked up T. S. Eliot's Old Possum's Book of Practical Cats at an airport, he grabbed the theater world by the tail as creator of "Cats," history's longest-running musical. The 20th century set the stage for vaudevillian singing and comedy acts, as well as some of the greatest musicals to hit Broadway: "Showboat," "Porgy and Bess," "Phantom of the Opera," "Hello, Dolly!" and "The Lion King."

Sometimes You Feel Like A Nutcracker

In 1892, Russian composer Peter Tchaikovsky turned the The Nutcracker into a beloved holiday ballet with his remarkable suite. Twentieth century dance gained popularity as composers wrote musicals that were imaginatively choreographed, including George Gershwin's "An American in Paris." Music and dance partnered dramatically with the Tango—followed by the carefree Charleston, Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers' ballroom elegance, the Jitterbug, the Twist and Disco.

Crank Up the Volume

Super Stock

Music of the millennium started on a somber note with the Gregorian chants of monks and ended on samba, "La Bamba" and "Living La Vida Loca." French troubadours roamed the countryside with poems and tunes in the Middle Ages. Lutes and flutes added richness to the Renaissance, while chamber music was handled well in the Baroque period.

Beethoven, Mozart and Tchaikovsky crowned the classical music of the 18th and 19th centuries. Strauss then waltzed in to share the spotlight and Sousa marched over to greatness. The birth of the Blues and Jazz brought Billie Holiday and Duke Ellington, followed by Big Bands and the easy-going Swing era.

With a twist and shout, Rock & Roll cruised in from Elvis Presley, Chuck Berry, Jimi Hendrix, KISS and Aerosmith. "We Are the World" provided musical relief and Farm Aid helped heal the heartland. Patsy Cline and Willie Nelson added that country twang, Sinatra made the songs so smooth, and folks listened happily ever after.

From Motown To Moonwalker

The Gloved One's 1982 "Thriller," containing such hits as "Beat It," became the best-selling album ever. Before the rhinestones, there was Detroit's Motown label, which signed Michael and his Jackson 5 brothers when he was still learning his "ABCs." With the toast of '60s soul—The Supremes, The Temptations, The Miracles, Stevie Wonder—music couldn't get mo' betta than Motown.

It Came From Deep Inside The Jukebox

"Put another nickel in" beckoned the jukebox, the first electrically amplified automatic phonograph.

From the 1930s to the 1960s, it held memories of teenage years and breakup tears. Covered in chrome, the jukebox magically queued up that special 45.

The transistor radios, 8-tracks, CD jukeboxes and discmans that followed just couldn't carry a tune quite as well.

Louis Armstrong blew away the competition with his virtuosity on jazz cornet and trumpet. New Orleans-born Satchmo (his cheeks puffed like a satchel when he played) became one of the greatest jazz musicians of the 20th century with recordings like "West End Blues." ## The Wild, Wild Woodstock

The Woodstock Music and Art Festival, an Upstate New York be-in that hosted music's grooviest stars from August 15-17, 1969, was to be the largest rock concert ever. An unexpected 500,000 fans, from hippies to anti-war protesters, braved traffic jams to witness this far-out trip guided by legends including Jimi Hendrix, Jefferson Airplane and Janis Joplin. Not bad for a single day's ticket price of $8. Woodstock later inspired such mega-concerts as Lollapalooza and Lilith Fair.

Worth A Fab Fortune

How'd four lads from Liverpool turn the music world on its ear? Once "I Want to Hold Your Hand" and a string of Beatles' hits reached #1, teens screamed for more. John, Paul, George and Ringo rushed into the studio and, armed with great melodies, created some of the most amazing songs of the 1960s, from "Yesterday" to "Eleanor Rigby." Yeah! Yeah! Yeah!

Don't Cry For Her, She's Madonna

Betcha dollars to jelly donuts that Elvis Presley will always be the King, with his swivel hips and voice that thrilled fans on The Ed Sullivan Show and the big screen. He burned up the charts with hits like "Hound Dog" and "Jailhouse Rock." He also popularized Las Vegas casinos with his shows, spawned Elvis impersonators and sparked kitschy trends like Graceland's jungle prints, shag carpeting, flashy jumpsuits and long sideburns. Thankyuhverymuch.

Who was this sexy singer who burst on the scene in her 1984 "Like a Virgin" video? Madonna set off a wannabe frenzy. Changing her look and style like a chameleon, she proved no one-shot wonder, continuing to wow audiences with her music, dancing, acting, tours and business sense. She also paved the way for other exciting female rock acts including Janet Jackson, En Vogue and Alanis Morissette.

Going After A Cure

AP/Wide World

Despite numerous medical milestones, curing diseases such as AIDS and cancer eludes the population. In the '80s, Ryan White, a hemophiliac, contracted HIV through blood transfusions and later died. The AIDS virus is the latest epidemic civilizations have battled. The Bubonic Plague killed 40 million by the 14th century and the Typhoid Fever outbreak of the early 1900s claimed countless lives as well. Vaccines now prevent such diseases as smallpox, but any mutations could pose a threat again.

Numb And Number

Prior to the use of anesthesia during operations, early surgeons and barbers cut veins to drain "bad" blood, or sucked it out with leeches to cure patients. Boiling oil was sometimes poured on wounds to sterilize them. Before nitrous oxide and ether were introduced as anesthetics in the 1800s, most operations weren't performed at all. Surgical conditions were unsanitary, causing infections to spread rapidly.

The Fact of Life

In the Middle Ages, the average life expectancy in Europe was about 30 years; today it is more than 70 for both men and women. Improved nutrition, sanitation, disease prevention and disease control are some of the main reasons for the increase.

It Does A Body Good

Consumers have become more concerned about keeping healthy, germ-free and well-groomed from head to toe. During the Middle Ages, baths were rarely taken, but today showers and baths are taken daily in order to keep clean and healthy. Today toothpaste, deodorants and mouthwash are used daily. Vitamins and natural herbs are popular and medical advancements keep folks functioning better.

Double Cheese--Hold The Diet!

Workers on the run were sold sandwiches from horse-drawn lunch wagons in the 1870s. America's fast food frenzy hit the road with the diner in the '40s and it's been burgers, fries and vending machines ever since. McDonald's put fast food on the map in the '50s, and its Big Mac Attack proved unstoppable. KFC, Arby's and Taco Bell have even sprung up in school cafeterias, airports, grocery and convenience stores. Would you like Beanie Babies with that?

With the average life expectancy rising, people will try liposuction and tummy tucks, facelifts and collagen injections to stay younger looking. RK and LASIK procedures make contact lenses and glasses obsolete for many, and hearing aids are almost invisible. Heart, lung and other transplants give new hope, as do today's medicines compared to the quack cure-alls of the 1800s.

Curling Irons

Bodybuilding became a pumping iron passion after ex-97 lb. weakling Charles Atlas promoted his "Dynamic Tension" muscle-producing exercises in the early 20th century. In the '80s and '90s, Arnold Schwarzenegger wannabes bench pressed and lifted weights in the gym so they could burn fat and get fit. Harmful steroids were replaced by sports drinks, creatine and protein bars to fuel performance.

The mysteries of medicine, better health and longer living were revealed as the millennium unfolded. Diseases prevalent in early times were conquered through improved medicine, sanitation, immunization and eating habits, although other factors such as high cholesterol, smoking and junk foods brought on such foes as heart disease, cancer and obesity. The Food and Drug Administration now ensures proper processing to kill bacteria and preserve foods longer.

In the 1800s, Austrian monk Gregor Mendel formulated the basic rules of heredity that led to genetics, and better understanding of human makeup. Florence Nightingale brought reforms to nursing in the 19th century including more sanitary conditions and scientific care for the sick. Instead of the guesswork so common in the Middle Ages, doctors now work to control, cure and prevent illness. Medical specialties were created, producing such authorities as pediatrician Dr. Benjamin Spock who knew all about babies.

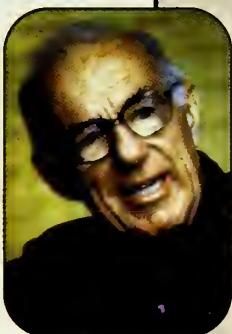

Exercise became almost an obsession as gyms, jogging tracks and Jane Fondas sprouted, and personal trainers zeroed in on targeted areas. Take a deep breath and say hello to yoga, stress reduction therapy, medications to feel happy/energetic/calmer, wrinkle creams, alternative medicines, just name it. Either people are living better or just becoming more high maintenance.

Coming And Going Attractions

Getting around was slow and hard during the beginning of the millennium but somebody had to do it. In the Middle Ages, horses got saddled with pulling wagons transporting goods and passengers for long distances. Viking ships found rough sailing to Greenland and later America, but compasses and better construction of vessels in the 1400s made voyages and overseas trade possible.

Canals and paved roads hastened travel in the 1700s and the first major U.S. Highway, the National Road, created road rage in the mid-1800s.

After Robert Fulton invented the steamboat, British inventor Richard Trevithick helped develop the locomotive.

Life quickened as travel and hauling freight became more economical.

Electric trains, streetcars and gasoline-powered engines drove transportation into the modern era. Suddenly automobiles putt-putted along and sprouted everything from running boards to fins. Airplanes soared, subways roared and spaceships explored. The risks of progress have also been great, such as the loss of pilot Amelia Earhart and her plane on an around-the-world flight in 1937, the Space Shuttle Challenger explosion in 1986 and numerous airplane crashes.

Tomorrow's transportation could include human teleportation and faster-than-light travel. The ride's been pretty good so far, but inevitably some still ask, "Are we there yet?"

Gas Transit

Once steam-powered engines invaded 18th century Europe, a steam car, or horseless carriage, seemed a natural. The gasoline engine and pneumatic tire, however, made automobiles practical. Henry Ford's 1908 assembly line mass production of his Model T made owning a car affordable. This led to the growth of suburbs, superhighways, motels, road-trips, traffic jams, malls and, of course, fuzzy dice.

Today's subways, light rail and ultra-fast bullet trains move commuters like crazy and make good action movie sequences.

Da Plane! Da Plane!

Leonardo da Vinci dreamed of flying machines with wings, but it took centuries to get the concept off the ground. The Montgolfier brothers were full of hot air when their balloon ascended in 1783. Orville and Wilbur Wright had the right stuff and flew the first successful airplane in 1903. Charles Lindbergh and Amelia Earhart flew far and solo, and Chuck Yeager broke the sound barrier. Today, airplanes carry millions of business, pleasure and military passengers. But airline food still hasn't improved much.

You'd be brave and dirty if you traveled in the bumpy horse-drawn wagons that existed before stagecoaches arrived in 1670. Stagecoach lines carried passengers and mail along routes in the West. Folks with the need for speed rode horseback.

In the Cold War, the scientific power of the U.S. and Soviet Union rested on advances in space. After Sputnik 1 probed space in 1957, chimps, dogs and finally men rocketed into the sky. ## We Get Game

Reuters

Sports gained popularity as time lunged forward. While forms of games resembling soccer were played during the 10th century, life rarely allowed time-outs for recreation. Thank goodness for the 1600s, when the English played Rounders, a baseball predecessor, and Scotland saw early rounds of golf. By the 1800s many people led the sportin' life, including James Naismith who invented basketball, and the students of Canada's McGill University who scored with the first hockey rules.

Reuters

Native American athlete Jim Thorpe won fame in early 20th century Olympic track and field, as well as football and baseball. Babe Didrickson, his female counterpart, excelled in golf as well as track and field.

Reuters

As baseball became a pastime and football a passion, Babe Ruth and Hank Aaron belted pitches "outta here," Jackie Robinson broke color barriers, Joe Namath threw footballs and John Elway busted Broncos loose in the Super Bowl.

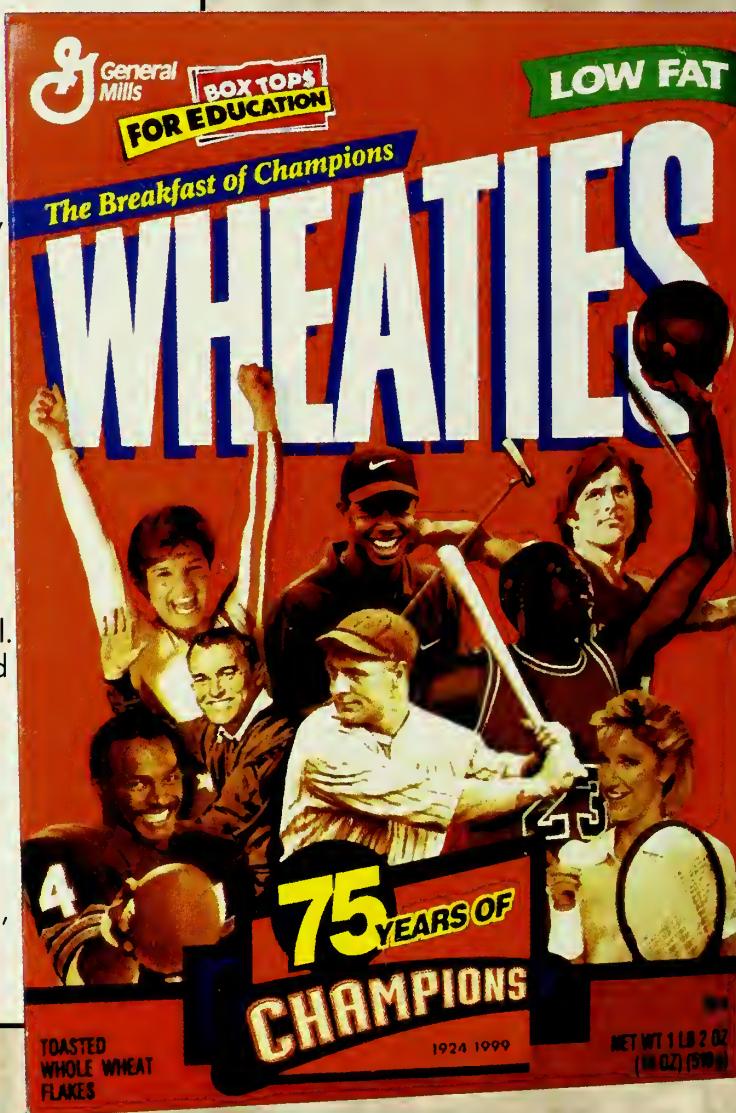

Reuters

Today sports revolves around such stars as heavy-hitter Ken Griffey, Jr., golf sensation Tiger Woods and hoops immortal Michael Jordan. Amateur and school sports are also serious stuff. Millions are on the fast track with NASCAR auto racing, on the edge for extreme sports and in the ropes for wrestling.

Champs For Sale

What really makes an athlete like home run king Mark McGwire a hero? Getting on General Mills' Wheaties cereal box, of course. There's nothing flaky about the morning mania created since 1924 by "The Breakfast of Champions." Sports merchandising—from corporate-sponsored Bowl games to endorsement deals—seems like the hottest game in town.

The Russians hadn't lost an Olympic hockey game since 1968, but they were iced over by the 1980 U.S. hockey team's "Miracle On Ice" victory at Lake Placid—which led to an eventual gold medal. Since the modern Olympic Games began in 1896, heroes such as track star Jesse Owens, figure skater Tara Lipinski, platform diver Greg Louganis and the 1996 women's gymnastics team have inspired sports fans everywhere.

That King Could Sting In The Ring

Before modern boxing was introduced in the 1700s, the sport was brutal, with no rest periods or gloves allowed. Jack Dempsey, Joe Louis and Rocky Marciano emerge victorious in the 1900s. But no fighter jabbed and jested like Muhammed Ali. Quick, agile and boastful, "The Greatest" even wrote poems describing how he would defeat opponents. He also made heavyweight contributions to the community and human rights.

Four Scores And Seven Yards Ago

The Green Bay Packers sent the Kansas City Chiefs packing 35-10 at the first Super Bowl in January, 1967. Today, it is America's most popular annual televised event with hype and million-dollar commercials galore. Not only are college and high school football championships also big, but the teams are just as good as the pros at the coin toss.

Served With Love

In the 1100s, the French originated tennis, calling it "jeu de paume" (game of the palm). Today it holds court as a major spectator and leisure sport. Star servers have included Don Budge, Helen Wills Moody, Arthur Ashe and 1973 "Battle of the Sexes" rivals Billie Jean King and Bobby Riggs. Recent top seeds such as Pete Sampras and Martina Navratilova have settled for anything but love by dominating Wimbledon and other championships.

The Ladies Who Win

America got a kick out of the U.S. Women's soccer team, which won the 1999 World Cup by defeating China. Their victory proved that anything men can do, women can do just as well. Big milestone: President Richard Nixon signed into law Title IX, giving girls equal access to school sports like football.

How Did It Come Into Play?

Baseball, bowling and other familiar sports didn't just appear out of the blue. Here's a roster of some game origins.

Baseball: Cooperstown, NY 1839. Abner Doubleday based his new sport on bat-and-ball games such as "one old cat." He adopted the diamond-shaped field for his game and assigned playing positions.

Bowling: Germany, third century. Every German peasant carried a club called a kegel for protection. In church, faith was tested by setting up the kegel as a target (representing the heathen) and rolling a stone to try to knock it down. Those who succeeded were considered free of sin.

Fencing: Italy, 16th century. Fencing began in ancient times as the practice of swordsmanship to prepare men for duels and warfare.

After Thomas Edison invented the commercial motion picture machine, the Kinetoscope, in 1893, projection machines greatly enlarged a film's image. This led to one of the 20th century's most popular forms of entertainment, the movie. Sunny Hollywood beckoned such film directors as D.W. Griffith, who revolutionized film editing with The Birth of a Nation in 1915. Silent films made quiet stars of comedian Charlie Chaplin, handsome Douglas Fairbanks Sr., Rudolph Valentino and Jean Harlow.

In the 1930s, audiences heard voices when "talkies" caught on after The Jazz Singer's premier in 1927. Screwball comedies including It Happened One Night thrust such stars as Clark Gable and Claudette Colbert into the limelight. Alfred Hitchcock made classic thrillers, and Frankenstein was a chiller. Casablanca dramatized war and Dr. Strangelove spoofed it. Marilyn Monroe and Audrey Hepburn lit up the screen, and Charlton Heston found fame of biblical proportions. John Wayne saved the day, and James Bond was never shaken or stirred. The Rat Pack cruised the Vegas strip and the Brat Pack cruised the halls in The Breakfast Club.

Blockbusters have ruled recent movies. Sylvester Stallone punched up Rocky. Harrison Ford dodged madmen and meteors in Star Wars and Raiders of the Lost Ark. Armageddon and Titanic astounded audiences with their mega-dollar budgets. Tom Hanks, Julia Roberts and Will Smith became idols at 24-screen multiplexes.

Seen In 3-D

Weapons flying past! Spaceships zooming above! Bwana Devil wowed tinted glasses-wearing crowds as the 3-D movie phenomenon burst from the screen in 1952. But high cost and poor quality made 3-D fall flat. Disney's Captain Eo gloriously revived 3-D in the '80s and became an audience-grabber at Epcot Center. Now seven-story IMAX theaters, IMAX 3-D technology and simulator rides truly immerse viewers in movies.

Fate of the Union

From the wilderness came a nation ready to fight for freedom and survive all odds. Native Americans had lived in the continent long before European explorers and colonists arrived in the 16th century. Thirteen British colonies formed, and the Revolutionary War erupted when England tightened control, and Paul Revere warned of the oncoming British invasion. Independence and the United States of America were both declared in 1776.

The new nation weathered heat from France and Mexico, but acquired new territory such as the Louisiana Purchase. After gold in California was discovered in 1849, America heard the roar of the Civil War, Reconstruction and Native American warriors such as Geronimo. Industry growth fueled prosperity until

World War I and the beginning of the Great Depression. Two heroines, Rosie the Riveter and First Lady Eleanor Roosevelt, emerged during World War II. Peace efforts chilled as the Cold War, Korean War and McCarthyism isolated the U.S. from Communist nations.

Life prospered in the suburbs and man rocketed into space, while civil rights struggles ignited. President John F. Kennedy was struck down, as were countless soldiers in Vietnam. Then President Richard Nixon struck out after the Watergate political scandal. The Gulf War, pollution and tragedies such as the Oklahoma City bombing hit hard in recent decades. Yet Americans still rally around the Stars and Stripes.

Betsy Ross was a well-known Philadelphia seamstress. In 1776, the young widow was approached by George Washington's Continental Congress committee to sew the first official U.S. flag per their 13 stars/13 stripes design. With the speed of Paul Revere, she finished it off as a July 4th accompaniment to The Declaration of Independence, which laid the foundation for the United States of America.

"I Have a Dream that my children will one day live in a nation where they will not be judged by the color of their skin, but by the content of their character," said Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. to Washington, D.C., protesters in 1963.

His non-violent approach helped advance civil rights for all races. Other warriors for racial equality include anti-segregationist Rosa Parks, and Jesse Jackson, who pushed for African-American economic power.

President Abraham Lincoln called it "A House Divided." The United States was unofficially split between the North (the Union), which sought to abolish slavery and modernize America, and the South (the Confederacy), which favored preserving slavery and an agrarian lifestyle. From 1861 to 1865, the bloody Civil War raged until General Robert E. Lee's Confederate army surrendered to General Ulysses S. Grant's Union force. Slavery was abolished and the United States became one nation again.

What Dream May Come

The 1920s roared with prosperity until October 29, 1929, Black Tuesday, when the New York Stock Exchange crashed and millions of shares of stock were suddenly dumped, plunging many into poverty. Franklin D. Roosevelt defeated President Herbert Hoover in the 1932 election. Roosevelt worked to end the Great Depression with the New Deal. Since then, America has survived inflation, recession, tax cuts, and somehow, lunchroom food.

The Voice That Launched The Vote For Women

In 1869, Susan B. Anthony helped found the National Women's Suffrage Association to seek equal rights for women. Her efforts led to passage of the 19th Amendment in 1920, giving women the right to vote. Other women's rights leaders furthered the cause, including Gloria Steinem and Betty Friedan. Role models such as astronaut Sally Ride and Supreme Court Justice Sandra Day O'Connor opened still more doors.

She Carries a Torch for Freedom

"Give me your tired, your poor, your huddled masses yearning to be free," beckons the Statue of Liberty. A gift to the United States from France in 1884, she has welcomed millions of immigrants to American shores with her towering presence in New York Harbor. Though they hail from many nations, they now call only one country home.

Ring Ma Bell

"Mr. Watson, come here," said Alexander Graham Bell into the telephone he developed in 1876. It's become one of today's most valuable communication devices, linking people throughout the world at lightning speed. From the telephone's humble beginnings have emerged high-speed fiber optic networks, fax machines, cellular phones, computer modems and videophones. There's some connection here.

Get The Message Already?

People spoke, wrote letters and sent messengers before this millennium but communication was usually local and slow. Most Middle Ages books were religious because church leaders were among the few who could read. Monks copied books by hand and town criers were heard since they announced news. Printed books of the Renaissance allowed the masses to read the Bible and other works. By the 1600s, newspapers enabled inquiring minds to read ship schedules. Benjamin Franklin helped establish regular postal service in the 1700s and the Pony Express ran mail cross-country in the 1800s.

While steamships and locomotives sped the spread of news, it wasn't until Samuel Morse invented the telegraph in the 1840s that coded messages were transmitted rapidly. Cameras, the typewriter, telephone, phonograph and motion pictures put communications on an even faster track.

Advances came in short and long waves when Guglielmo Marconi invented radio. Television was perfected, and tape recorders came into play. Since the 1960s, communication satellites relayed TV, radio and other signals across the planet.

Computers and modems instantly processed data, and the Internet linked the world. Broadcast journalists, such as 20/20's Barbara Walters, fueled the rise of information junkies. Fiber optics, VCRs, CD-ROMs and HDTV not only furthered technology but gave adults lots of expensive new toys.
